

Autism Advocate Award

Do you know someone who demonstrates remarkable advocacy for an individual or group of individuals with autism spectrum disorders? Nominate them for the Autism Society of Nebraska – Autism Advocate Award!

Your submission should:

- Be postmarked by March 10th, 2017;
- Include your contact information so we can get in touch with you if the nominee is chosen; and
- Include details of how the nominee exhibits the following qualities as an advocate:

Commitment: Has consistently advocated for an individual or group of individuals on the autism spectrum and is committed to promoting autism awareness and advocacy.

Inspiration: Displays positive interactions with individuals or groups and influences others to advocate and spread awareness and acceptance of individuals with autism.

Vision: Has the ability to see opportunities to help through advocacy and awareness.

Initiative: Learns and takes the steps necessary to use resources and information to advocate for an individual or group of individuals with autism spectrum disorders.

Nominations can be submitted:

- via email to autismsociety@autismnebraska.org
- or by mail to:

Autism Society of Nebraska
PO Box 83559
Lincoln, NE 68501-3559

The award will be presented during the evening event at the 2017 NE ASD Network State Conference on Thursday March 30th, 2017 at the Younes Conference Center in Kearney, Nebraska. Please contact us with any questions!